Excerpt: .(probably into tsh) has been avoided, and the z employed, in which manner the concluding radical remains apparent., n, 1 The Galla has two participles, one of which is the participle of the present and narrative past tense; it is inflected through all the six persons, and provided with a special form for the feminine; and it is capable therefore of a precise application in the sentence. Great care, however, must be taken with these participial forms, not to mistake them for cases where the postp. ti, as the sign of a case, is appended to the verb instead of the noon, and thus engendering forms which have exactly the same sound as these participial forms. This most frequently takes place in inserted relative sentences, as: nu bia kana himbekneti gargara walalle, as we did not know the. country, we wandered about. Here himbekneti is a participle with the negation: we not knowing etc. ; but, izan bia nu himbekneti na gezani, they led us into a country we did not know. In this sentence the ti appended to himbekneti...
