Christmas Summary Classics This series contains summary of Classic books such as Emma, Arne, Arabian Nights, Pride and prejudice, Tower of London, Wealth of Nations etc. Each book is specially crafted after reading complete book in less than 30 pages. One who wants to get joy of book reading especially in very less time can go for it. About The Book Hard Times is not one of the longest, but it is one of the most powerful of Dickens works. John Ruskin went so far as to call it in several respects the greatest book Dickens had written. It is, of course, a fierce attack on the early Victorian school of political economists. The Bounderbys and Gradgrinds are typical of certain characters, and, though they change their form of speech, are still recognisable to-day. As a study of social and industrial life in England in the manufacturing districts fifty years ago, Hard Times will always be valuable, though allowance must be made here as elsewhere for the novelists tendency to exaggeration--exaggeration of virtue no less than of vice...
