Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The growing inequality between China s rural and coastal regions strains the Communist Party s hold on power. As the Chinese people struggle to hold their country together, a demonstration in Hong Kong captures the attention of the world. The Chinese government sends a brutal general to suppress it; triggering a civil war that will engulf the Chinese nation, and force its neighbors to intervene. In the massacre that follows; Britain deploys the 3rd Royal Marine Commando Brigade to Hong Kong. The American President, hampered by blackmail, directs the head of US Pacific Command to neutralize China s nuclear arsenal, and try stabilize the situation while minimizing US involvement. The Russian government carries out a plan to create a puppet government that can secure its border with China. In the midst of the crisis, the member nations of ASEAN bankroll a group of rebels called the New China Forces, and place a mysterious former Thai policeman at its head. The man is simply known as the the Colonel, and his experience fighting organized crime and narcotics in south...
