AU I ll have to do is to stand still and be tossed about. Yes, stand on your head in the dishpan, balanced on a tumbler, suggested Paul. You ll have a nice tumble, if you do. And I guess you d like to see me, suggested the aspiring acrobat. Well, I m not going to. Tim, you and I will get up a daily paper. We can gather news by wireless. I ll write out the sheets by hand, and you can sell em. Sure, agreed the newsboy. I m lost without something like that to do. I m not used to this sporting life. I d like to see an extra edition out now. They ate breakfast under difficulties, and many cups of coffee were spilled in places not intended for them. But, for all that, it was jolly fun, and, donning oilskins a little later, they all went on deck, where they watched the big waves which were running quite high, their crests whipped into foam and spray by the wind, which every moment was increasing. Tiring of the exposure to the rough weather, they came below in about half an hour, and put in the rest of the morning at various occupations. Some wrote letters, to be posted when sighting the next inward-bound coast steamer; Dick was going over some details of the mysteries of navigation with Captain Barton, and Beeby was peacefully slumbering, braced up on a...
