The history of the postage stamp begins in Great Britain with the great reform of its system in 1839-40. A post-paid envelope was in common use in Paris in the year 1653. Stamped postal letter paper (carta postate bollata) was issued to the public by the government of the Sardinian states in Nov. , 1818, and stamped postal envelopes were issued by the same government from 1820 until 1836. Stamped wrappers for newspapers were made experimental in London by Mr. Chas. Whiting, under the name of go-frees, in 1830. Finally, and in its results most important to all, the adhesive stamps were made by Mr James Chalmers in his printing office at...
