Excerpt from Letters From the Forty-Fourth Regiment M. V. M: A Record of the Experience of a Nine Months Regiment in the Department of North Carolina in 1862-3 Your readers in Boston will not be uninterested in following the fortunes of the gallant 44th, which has just gone forth from your city with full ranks, made up in large measure of young men in whose honor and welfare every true Bostonian will feel a peculiar interest. The personnel of the 44th (recruited up from the Fourth Battalion of Infantry as a nucleus, ) has been so frequently the subject of newspaper remark, that nothing more need be said under that head; but it may not be vainglorious to say that no regiment has gone forth from the old Bay State, renowned for the quality of its soldiers, which exceeds or equals the second New England Guard regiment, as regards the personal qualities of its rank and file. All the learned professions are represented in its ranks, and even some of the recondite sciences and fine arts have...

Reviews

It becomes an awesome publication that I actually have actually read. It really is writter in simple terms and not difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
