Beyond the horizon is an experimental fiction. It is a story about a young Indian middle class guy who is always ready to sacrifice himself for the welfare of his family. As he is a member of joint family and once in his childhood his whole family was spread due to some misunderstandings. So the hero of the fiction decided to bring back his whole family under one roof again. The young lad has nice sense of humor and he knows very well that without the heap of money he will not be able to help anyone. So first of all he decided to make money. To achieve his target he has gone through many ups and downs. During his struggle period he came to know many facts like, Everything that glitters is not gold. But ultimately he makes his way. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
